2023 BILL

1 AN ACT to create 20.285 (1) (cm) and 36.25 (56) of the statutes; relating to:
2 creating a journalism fellowship program in the University of Wisconsin
3 System and making an appropriation.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates a journalism fellowship program in the University of Wisconsin System under which 25 fellows are matched with participating newsrooms for a one-year fellowship. Each fellow, who must hold a two-year or four-year degree in journalism, media, communications, or a similar program at an institution of higher education, receives a salary of $40,000. In an application to be a fellow or a participating newsroom, the applicant must demonstrate how the applicant's participation in the program will help increase access to high quality local journalism, bolster media literacy, meet state residents' civic information needs, or a combination of these.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
